WHERE TO FISH in CANADA

LIBRARY

APR 10 1958

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

A service booklet listing species of fish and where to find them

Throughout the 5000-mile breadth of Canada, from Newfoundland to British Columbia, countless rushing rivers, tumbling streams and quiet lakes call anglers to fishing adventure. This booklet is intended as a general guide to the species of fighting fish anglers may catch in each of the provinces and regions of Canada, and to help them find good fishing wherever they go.

Issued under the authority of the Minister of
Northern Affairs and National Resources

Nova Scotia

Here is a happy land for the angler - plenty of opportunity for both fresh and salt water fishing. Atlantic salmon, landlocked salmon, trout, and striped bass are the main species found in fresh water. Salt water angling includes, tuna, swordfish, pollock and mackerel.

Fresh Water Fishing

Atlantic salmon - found in most rivers emptying into the Atlantic, the Bay of Fundy or Northumberland Strait. Some of the better waters are: Midway, St. Mary's, La Have, Margaree, Annapolis, Mersey, Tusket, Clyde, Musquodoboit, Tangier and Gold Rivers and a large number of smaller streams such as Ingram, East River, Middle River, Little Salmon, Gates Brook, Ship Harbor, Moser's, East River Sheet Harbor and West River Sheet Harbor.

Landlocked salmon - smaller edition of the Atlantic salmon are found in Grand Lake (known as the Grand Lake Watershed) also in Springfield, Horseshoe, Beaver Bank, Waverley River and Lake William, as well as lakes of the Dartmouth chain nearest Waverley.

Sea trout - here are the best streams: Musquodoboit, Moser, Salmon, Ecum Secum, St. Mary's, Margaree, North River and Gaspereaux Brook, Clyburn Brook. There are also several good streams on the South Shore of the Province and along the Eastern Shore and Northumberland Strait.

Rainbow trout - several lakes in the Province have been systematically stocked.

Rumsey Lake and Sunken Lake offer the best rainbow fishing.

Brown trout - originally planted in Guysborough River and are also taken in the Salmon and Cornwallis Rivers.

Lake trout - some of the best lakes are: Dollar, Tangier, Wright's, Pockwack, Cloud, Sherbrooke.

Striped Bass - the popularity of this species continues to grow. The greatest number are caught in the Annapolis River. Other good rivers are: Shubenacadie, Gaspereaux, Bear Bass, Five Islands.

Salt Water Fishing

Nova Scotia boasts having the World record for a Bluefin Tuna - 977 lbs.

Tuna - found in the following places: Wedgeport, Cape St. Mary, Shelburne, Jordan Bay, Liverpool, La Have River, St. Ann Bay, Chester.

Swordfish - The ports of Yarmouth, Louisbourg, Glace Bay and Ingonish are customary bases.

Pollock and Mackerel - May be caught in most coastal waters of the Province.

For those interested in Tuna fishing a valuable source of information is the Manager, Wedgeport Tuna Guides Association, Wedgeport Tuna Guides Association, Wedgeport, N.S. He will be glad to furnish dependable and up-to-date data.
